SPRING SEASON IN JEOPARDY

AYSO Region 121,

I have written many times this season about the need for volunteers. The AYSO program is successful because so many people are willing to volunteer their time and efforts to the program. It seems that right now, with times the way they are, it is harder and harder to find the time to commit to our extra curricular activities. Many people are working more or longer hours, while others are busy just trying to make ends meet.

Our volunteers did a wonderful job this year; if you see someone doing something so the kids can play soccer, please tell them "Thank You". We were able to maintain our registration numbers at last year's levels while other regions were losing players. We even did this while many of the club organizations in our city were expanding. But after a successful Fall season, many of our core volunteers need a break. This could put our Spring season in jeopardy.

We need your help to fill some key roles in our organization to ensure that AYSO games continue to be played during the Spring 2009 season. Please review the list below and choose to make a difference.

- Spring Season Director
- Spring Season Field Director
- Spring Season Coach Administrator
- Spring Season Division Reps
- Referees
- Coaches

We will teach you everything you need to know to do any of these jobs. We will be there to mentor you every step of the way. Find a friend and share the responsibilities. Bring some new and creative ideas to our region.

Let's keep the kids playing soccer. Send me an email, rcreg121@aol.com, and let me know what you would like to do.

Thanks,

Brian Ring
Regional Commissioner, Region 121

REFEREE CORNER

Referee's Corner: Yellow Cards

By Rich Torquato, Area CVPA; Edited by Keith Krasnigor, Referee Administrator

This week we look at the provision of Law 12 that describes the situations wherein the referee may caution and show the yellow card to a player or substitute (a child on the sideline). The goal of the caution is to let a player know that he has crossed a line and needs to bring his behavior back in to line if he is to remain in the match.

First off, AYSO strongly discourages showing cards to younger players and we train our referees accordingly. You are more likely to see this action in U14 and above, although there are some circumstances in U12 for which a caution or send off are appropriate. The yellow card is displayed in cautioning a player for the following reasons:

- (1) Unsporting Behavior – This captures a large variety of behaviors that the referee deems unsporting. Just a few examples would include yelling at another player, a reckless foul, a tackle that endangers an opponent, taunting, or any other behavior that is overtly unfair or brings the game into disrepute.
- (2) Dissent – This would include some form of overt disagreement with the referee, either by what the player says to the referee or by the player's actions.
- (3) Persistent Infringement – Usually this takes the form of a player repeatedly committing fouls, especially in a short amount of time.
- (4) Delaying the restart of play – An example of this would include walking off with the ball when a free kick has been awarded to the opponents.
- (5) Failing to respect the required distance on a free kick, goal kick, corner kick or throw-in – Opponents must remain 10 yards from the ball on such kicks and two yards away on a throw-in. Standing in front of the ball to interfere so as to allow one's team to take up a defensive position is the most common form of this type of misconduct.
- (6) Entering or re-entering the field without the referee's permission – We don't see that much in AYSO, but it would include instances where a substitute runs onto the field for any reason.
- (7) Deliberately leaving the field of play without the referee's permission – Again this is an infrequent occurrence, but might include a player walking off the field in anger or leaving the field for any other reason without the referee's permission.

Coaches may also be cautioned, but they are not shown cards. Substitutes may be cautioned (and shown the card) for items 1, 2, 4, and 6.

AND NOW...A WORD FROM OUR SPONSORSHIP CHAIR.....BOB LANG

ALERT: Our next fundraiser dining out is scheduled for this next Wednesday, Nov 5 at Islands. This is located near the Town Center Mall. This should be a great fundraiser for all of us, as all attending will receive a 10% off coupon for their next visit. Further, our region will receive 20% of the sales proceeds. This is our last fundraiser of the year, so let's make it a big one! Make sure you bring the flyer in with you!

Banners: Part of a complete team is the team Banner. Looking around the fields I have seen some beautiful banners that represent each team prominently. The colors, style, and characters are great to see. Each week our children show the energy and desire on the fields, and these banners are great recognition for our region and our children. If you have a banner for your team, make sure you display it proudly on the sidelines. Let everyone know who you are!

Not too Late: We're in the homestretch of the season, some teams are in a dogfight for positioning. Others have given a great showing. We're also coming close to the end of fundraising season. Please continue to ask about sponsorships for your teams. There is still time and it's great recognition!

Funds Update: We had a terrific followthrough with our banner promotion! We earned more than $500 for our region with BannersUSA. Great thanks to everyone who ordered a banner! Our most recent dining out at Souplantation was a successful event as was Rubio's. I'll have numbers for you soon.

Sponsorship Plaques and Rebates: Quick reminder, if you have not received your sponsorship plaque, check at the fields to see if it is there. If for some reason your plaque is not located, call Studio One to ask about it. You can also email me at azteccap@pacbell.net with inquiries. Don't forget, if you obtained a sponsor your team will receive a check for their party in a couple weeks. Look for the dates in an upcoming SAYSO. Finally, don't forget to book those parties soon! Space is limited at various locations!

Just present this flyer to your server and we'll donate 20% of your food and beverage purchases back to your organization.

Thank You!
